Cranleigh
Choral Society

Thank you for being a friend...

Who are we?

For over 100 years Cranleigh Choral Society has provided a wealth of music to the people of Cranleigh and its surrounding villages.

Today the society provides an opportunity for local people to take part in high quality music making at the centre of the Cranleigh community.

Members meet for weekly rehearsals and present three concerts a year at a range of venues. Along with the Choir, the concerts regularly showcase soloists and musicians of exceptional talent.

In these difficult times for all in performing arts, individual donations and sponsorship form a vital part of the additional income needed to continue this wonderful musical tradition.

Thank you for your support.
